

IN ENGLISH Workbook

Volume 4, Unit 10

Contents

UNIT TEN:

SCENE: Sunset Boulevard (S)	35
VOCABULARY (V & P)	39
QUESTIONS	43
STRUCTURE	47
WRITING	56
DIALOG (D)	59
CONVERSATION	65
EVALUATION	68
TEST	83

UNIT 10

10-S Scene: Sunset Boulevard

Laurel Canyon is the home of many actors, writers, and musicians. Laurel Canyon is close to Hollywood and Sunset Boulevard, but is quite different from central Hollywood.

Here is a country store which is similar to those you find in small towns. You can also stop and have a hamburger below the market. Laurel Canyon Boulevard is noisy with traffic, but listen, what else do you hear?

Right across from the country store is a cleaners and laundry. This cleaners has "same day" service. They also repair shoes. There are many narrow roads that go up into the hills from Laurel Canyon. They aren't as busy as Laurel Canyon Blvd., which is a main road between the San Fernando Valley and West Hollywood.

Look at the houses on top of the hill. What is that in the sky? It's a plane that is writing a word. What does it spell? C-A-T-C-H. What does "catch" mean? There are many plants and trees in the canyon which almost hide the houses.

Sunset Boulevard is one of the most famous streets in the world. Why? Let's find out. Sunset Blvd. runs from the Old Plaza in downtown Los Angeles to the beach. Today we are just going to see a few miles of it, from West Hollywood to Westwood. On this part of Sunset there is a little bit of everything. There are some hotels, sidewalk cafes and all types of restaurants, some with dancing. Sushi is everywhere in L.A., even on the "Strip".

This part of Sunset Boulevard is called the Sunset Strip, or just "the Strip". If you don't want sushi today, how about a hamburger or hot dog? They probably serve the best in the world here. That's what the sign says, anyway.

Billboards are everywhere along Sunset. They advertise new movies and shows. That is the new Le Mondrian Hotel. Across from the hotel is the Comedy Store. If you want to laugh, come here any night of the week.

Going west on Sunset, the street changes a bit. The restaurants and shops near Sunset Plaza Drive become a bit more "chic". You can see that we are driving along the western side of the Hollywood Hills.

A little further west the street changes again. Let's take a short walk and look in some of the windows. Do you like the latest style? Chinese food, anyone? Do you have enough money to buy this car?

There are always some new restaurants on the "Strip". Things change quickly here. Nothing stays the same. They are always building something new.

Across from this nightclub is the Roxy, where rock and jazz musicians play nightly. Don't wait. Get your tickets now! They go fast here.

Gazzarri's is another hot spot. It is the oldest rock club on the "Strip". They have dancing every night. Gazzarri's has been at this location for 25 years. Well, let's be on our way. You can come back to dance later this evening, if you want.

Do you want to see some of the movie stars' houses? You don't need a map. Just follow me. We are now entering Beverly Hills, where many movie stars live. Not everyone in Beverly Hills is a movie star, but many people here lived and still do live like kings.

Let's take a look at one of the most famous mansions in the area, not far from Sunset Blvd. at Loma Vista and Doheny Road. Edward L. Doheny, who was an oilman, built this 55-room home in 1923. It is called Greystone because they made the roof of gray stone.

Let's get out of the car and take a look at the view. Greystone is now a public park open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. There is a fantastic view of the west side of Los Angeles from here.

Down Sunset a little further you must stop, at least for a little while, at the Beverly Hills Hotel. The hotel sits among 12 acres of gardens. Notice the banana trees. You may even see some movie stars here in the Polo Lounge.

If you just want to rest and relax and don't want to spend any money, push the button, wait for the "WALK" sign, and then walk across the street to a beautiful little park. This park is at Sunset and Crescent.

It is nice to come here on a warm Sunday afternoon. It's not as big as Griffith Park, but everyone seems to be enjoying the flowers, fountains, and sunshine. Little boys are kicking a ball on the lawn. A family is playing and laughing together.

What do you see in the water? What color are they? Should we pick some flowers and take them with us? No, we shouldn't. The flowers are for everyone to enjoy here.

Do we have time to sunbathe? Not if you want to see all of L.A. You can get some sun at the beach later. Shall we be on our way?

Farther west Sunset goes through the Bel-Air neighborhood. There are hundreds of mansions in this area where many film stars and the internationally famous live. The speed limit on this street is 35 miles per hour. Do you think he's driving faster than 35 MPH?

A bit further west on Sunset at Hilgard is the University of California, Los Angeles: UCLA. To really see UCLA you have to get out of your car, or off the bus, and walk through the campus.

UCLA has more than 85 buildings of all shapes, sizes and styles, acres of grass, trees, and plants from all over the world. One of the most interesting spots on campus is the Murphy Sculpture Garden. It's a wonderful place to relax, picnic, sunbathe, skate, and maybe even study.

Let's take a look at some of the pieces of sculpture. Here's a piece by Henry Moore. This one's by Maillol. That couple's sitting next to a Rodin. Do you like this one? Here's a series of sculpture by Matisse. Notice how the person changes in each one.

This path goes to the southern part of the campus. There are over 33,000 students at UCLA, but it's a Sunday and today it seems almost empty. Even on weekdays, it doesn't seem crowded because the campus is so big. Let's take a look around. This is one of the outdoor eating areas. Did you spend all of your money? It's easy to get some more from the automatic teller here, if you need to.

Are you hungry? We can get something to eat quickly here at the cafeteria. You can sit either indoors or outdoors. If you are really in a hurry, you can get something from the machines. There are sandwiches, candy, milk, and coffee.

This is the oldest part of the campus. These buildings at the top of the stairs opened in 1929. This is Royce Hall. They have an excellent concert series here during the school year. Across from Royce Hall is a brick Romanesque style building which is the College Library.

As you can see, the campus of UCLA is like a large park. Squirrels run freely, and so do the students. That Gothic style building is Kerckhoff Hall, which has the student offices and a good coffee house.

What's this? It's a fountain, but it seems to be running upside down! The water is running into a hole in the middle. Here's a place to park motorcycles.

There are many schools at the University. This is the Health Sciences Building. The Schools of Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Public Health, and the UCLA Hospital are in this area. Within the School of Botany is the Mathias Botanical Gardens, which is on the southeast end of the campus. Let's rest here for a few minutes before we go into Westwood Village. Are your legs as tired as mine? It's time for a little break.

10-V 10-P Vocabulary and Pronunciation

Old Verbs

		past
1.	cost	cost
2.	cut	cut
3.	find	found
4.	get	got
5.	hear	heard
6.	keep	kept
7.	let	let
8.	lose	lost
9.	mean	meant
10.	run	ran
11.	sell	sold
12.	think	thought
13.	wear	wore
14.	write	wrote

New Verbs

1.	repair	repaired
2.	fix	fixed
3.	spell	spelled
4.	hide	hid
5.	advertise	advertised
6.	follow	followed
7.	kick	kicked
8.	get some sun	got some sun
9.	sunbathe	sunbathed
10.	telephone	telephoned
11.	type	typed
12.	hire	hired
13.	promise	promised
14.	fit	fit
15.	depend	depended
16.	smell	smelled
17.	die	died
18.	happen	happened
19.	count	counted
20.	rent	rented
21.	pick (me) up	picked (me) up
22.	drop (me) off	dropped (me) off

Nouns

1. airplane
2. body
3. billboard
4. speed limit
5. miles per hour
6. university
7. campus
8. series
9. machine
10. candy
11. motorcycle
12. business
13. transportation
public transportation
private transportation
14. school
15. hole
16. doctor
17. nurse
18. dentist
19. health
20. bookkeeping
21. clothes
22. cologne
23. fragrance
24. letter
25. king
26. queen
27. writer: a person who writes
28. musician: a person who plays music
29. country: away from the city, outside the city
30. town: small city
31. cleaners: a place where they clean your clothes
32. laundry: a place where they wash your clothes
33. human: person
34. comedy: it makes you laugh
35. location: place, spot
36. mansion: very large house
37. oilman: a man who sells oil
38. stone: a rock
39. lounge: bar
40. sunshine: sun
41. neighbor: a person who lives near you
42. neighborhood: an area of the city
43. area: place, spot, location

44. middle: in the center
45. hospital: a place where you go when you are very sick
46. break: a rest
47. client: customer
48. autograph: to write your name
49. services: public or private businesses that do things for you.
50. acre: 43,560 square feet
51. nightclub: a place of entertainment, open at night for eating, drinking. Sometimes there is a show.
52. environment: the area around someone or something.

Basic

1. be able to: can
2. almost: not quite
3. not quite
4. the same as
5. like
6. similar to: like
7. as much as
8. as good as
9. a bit
10. should
11. while
12. close: near
13. have to: must
14. soon
15. even
16. everywhere: every place
17. each: every

Other

1. narrow
2. wide
3. upside down
4. romantic
5. away
6. dead: not living
7. alive: living
8. own: It is (my, your, his, her, our, their) own car = It is (my, your, his, her, our, their) car.

9. anyway: no matter if its right or not
10. probably: more than just possible
11. over: finished
12. through: finished
13. surprised: She is surprised. She can't believe that she will get $1,000,000 next week.
14. style: type, kind
15. forever: it never ends, always
16. chic: newest style, beautiful
17. daily: every day
18. nightly: every night
19. fantastic: wonderful, great
20. maybe: possibly, yes or no
21. young: not old
22. glad: happy
23. popular: famous, everyone likes (it, her, him)
24. actually: really
25. else: more
26. couple: two
27. sick: when you are not well

Expressions

1. Big deal!: I don't care.
2. So what!: It doesn't matter.
3. We're through: We are finished.
4. I'm sure that ...
5. I'm not sure that ...
6. What difference does that make?
7. Come on!
8. It's up to you: You decide.
9. Do it for the fun of it: Do it for fun.
10. That depends.
11. What are you talking about?
12. I'll keep you in mind: I'll remember you.
13. You're not quite old enough to drink alcohol:
You're almost old enough to drink alcohol.
14. Let's get going: Let's go.
15. spend time with ...
16. sort of: a little
17. at times: sometimes
18. true: Yes, you are right.
19. Congratulations!: (Good! Good for you!)

Questions

The numbers in the ▽'s in the video Scene component correspond to the following.

1. Who lives in Laurel Canyon?

Many actors, writers and musicians live in Laurel Canyon.

2. Is Laurel Canyon the same as central Hollywood?

3. What is across from the country store?

4. Do they fix shoes at this store?

5. What is the main road between the "Valley" and West Hollywood?

6. How do you spell what the airplane is writing in the sky?

7. Where does Sunset Boulevard start and end?

8. What can you find on Sunset Boulevard?

9. What do billboards advertise on Sunset?

10. Where should you go if you want to laugh?

11. Do you like the latest style in clothes?

12. Do things always stay the same on the "Strip"?

13. Where do rock musicians play nightly?

14. What is the name of the oldest rock club on the "Strip"?

15. Where can you go dancing on the "Strip"?

16. Is everyone in Beverly Hills a movie star?

17. Who built the Greystone Mansion in Beverly Hills?

18. When did he build it?

19. Where can you see movie stars?

20. What do you see in the water?

21. Should you pick the flowers in the park?

22. How many mansions are there in Bel-Air?

23. What is the speed limit on this street?

24. Where is UCLA?

25. How many buildings are there on the campus of UCLA?

26. Do you like the sculpture in the sculpture garden?

27. Which one do you like best?

28. How many students are there at UCLA?

29. If you are in a hurry, where can you get something to eat fast?

30. What kind of food can you get from machines?

31. Where do they have concerts at UCLA?

32. Where is the water running?

Structure

1. Can you count all of the cars in Los Angeles?

No, I can't.

Why not?

Because there are too many.

Can you eat 20 pounds of cheese in a day?

No, I can't.

Why not?

Because that is too much cheese for me to eat.

Can you buy cigarettes when you are 18 years old?

Yes, you can, but ...

2. Is it a good idea to smoke?

No, it isn't. Doctors say that you should not smoke.

Doctors also say that you should get enough rest every day. If you need to sleep 8 hours a day, you should get 8 hours sleep every night.

Some people need 8 hours sleep, but they don't get that. They are usually tired. They should sleep more.

Doctors also say that you should exercise to stay in good condition and to be healthy.

Should you smoke a lot of cigarettes to stay in good condition?

No, you should not. (shouldn't)

Should you drink a lot of alcohol to stay healthy?

No, you shouldn't.

What should you do to stay in good shape?

You should eat right.

You should exercise.

You should get enough sleep.

You should not smoke.

You can drink, but you shouldn't drink too much.

- 3. I should exercise every day.
You should eat better food than you are eating now.
He should stop smoking.
She should try to learn English.
That should bother you. (It) should bother you.
We should stay awhile longer in Los Angeles.
They should live here if they like warm weather.

Should you exercise every day?

Yes, you should.

Should you smoke a lot?

No, you shouldn't.

Should you drink beer and drive?

No, you shouldn't.

I shouldn't drink too much.

You shouldn't eat too much.

He shouldn't smoke. It isn't a good idea for him to smoke.

She shouldn't speak anything except English in class.

That shouldn't bother you. It shouldn't bother you.

We shouldn't forget to write our friends back home.

You shouldn't leave Los Angeles now. There is more to see and do.

They shouldn't go back to Chicago until the winter is finished.

- 4. Can you go with me to the beach tomorrow?

No, I can't.

Why not?

Because I have to work tomorrow. I work every weekday.

I must work tomorrow.

Must you work tomorrow?

Yes, I must.

Do you have to work tomorrow?

Yes, I do.

I must go now. I have an appointment.

I have to go now.

You must eat if you want to live.

You have to eat if you want to live.

He has to work Monday through Friday.
He must work Monday through Friday.

She has to be at work at 8:30 a.m.
She must be at work at 8:30 a.m.

The letter has to be finished before you give it to him.
The letter must be finished before you give it to him.

We have to talk now. I have something very important to tell you.
We must talk now.

You have to be back here at 11:30 p.m.
You must be back here at 11:30 p.m.

They have to return on January 20th.
They must return on January 20th because their vacation is finished on that date.

have to = must

(We use "have to" more often than "must".)

- 5. Do you have to go now?
Yes, I do.
No, I don't.
- Does he have to work every weekday?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.
- Does she have to be at work at 8:30 a.m.?
Yes, she does.
No, she doesn't.
- Does the lesson have to be finished before tomorrow?
Yes, it does.
No, it doesn't.
- Do we have to talk right now?
Yes, we do.
No, we don't.
- When do they have to return to Chicago?
They have to go back there on January 20th.
They must return on January 20th.

6. John: Whose new car is that over there?
Bill: That's Joe's car. His is next to mine.
John: His car is bigger than yours, isn't it?
Bill: Yes, it is. It's bigger than Susan's too.
John: Is that Susan's in front of yours?
Bill: Yes, that's hers. Hers is newer than mine.
John: It's newer than Joe's car too, isn't it?
Bill: Yes, it is. Where's your car?
John: It's across the street.
Bill: Yours is as old as mine.
John: Yes, ours (our cars) are older than both of theirs (Joe's and Susan's cars).

7. My car and your car are the same. They are both 1975 Fords. They are the same color and size. There is no difference. My car is the same as yours.
His car is an '81 Honda. Her car is a '79 Ford. His car is small. Her car is big.
Her car is different from his.
Her car is different than his.
His car isn't the same as hers.

(different from = different than)

8. My house is big. Your house is big too. They are both the same size.

Your house is as big as mine.
This car costs $19,000. That car costs $19,000 too.
They both have the same price.
This car is as expensive as that one.
This car costs as much as that one.

That was a good movie and so was the other movie. They were both the same.

That movie was as good as the other film.

9. Bill bought 6 books at the bookstore.
Bob bought 6 books too.
Bill bought as many books as Bob.
Bob bought as many as Bill.

Susan drank two cups of tea, and so did Mary.
Susan drank as many cups as Mary.
Susan drank as many as Mary.
Susan drank as much tea as Mary.
Susan drank as much as Mary.

10. New York is big. San Francisco is big too. They are both big, but they are not exactly the same. They are a bit different. New York is bigger than San Francisco, but they both have tall buildings. They are similar to each other because they both have tall buildings. They are like each other, but not the same. San Francisco isn't as big as New York.

similar to = like = almost the same

Mary is similar to her mother.
Mary is like her mother.
Bill is similar to his father.
Bill is like his father.
Is Chicago similar to New York?
Is Chicago like New York?

Yes, it is, because they are both large American cities with tall buildings. But Chicago is not exactly the same as New York. They are a bit different. New York is larger than Chicago.

Do you think that Los Angeles is similar to Rome?

Well, they are both big. Both cities have lots of traffic and lots of people. So, in some ways they are similar, but Rome is much older than Los Angeles. L.A. isn't as old as Rome. L.A. is not the same as Rome, but in some ways similar to Rome.

What do you think? Is Rome similar to L.A.?

Is your home city like L.A.?

How is your home town like L.A.?

How is it different from L.A.?

- 11. Bill is able to swim.
Bill can swim.

Mary is able to speak French.
Mary can speak French.

They are able to play baseball.
They can play baseball.

- 12. They will be able to go to the beach next weekend.
They can go to the beach next weekend.
We will be able to see you next month in San Diego.
We can see you next month in San Diego.
I will be able to talk to you longer tomorrow.
I can talk to you longer tomorrow.

- 13. Bill talked to a man on Sunset Boulevard. The man gave Bill directions.
Bill talked to a man who gave him directions.
Bill talked to a man that gave him directions.

(You must use either "who" or "that" in the sentences above.)

Bill talked to a man on Wilshire Boulevard. Bill gave the man directions.
Bill talked to a man (whom) he gave directions to.
Bill talked to a man (that) he gave directions to.
Bill talked to a man he gave directions to.

(You don't have to use "who" or "that" in the sentences above. You can leave them out.)

(You use who and whom for persons.
You use that for persons, things, and animals.
You use which for things and animals only.)

- 14. A person telephoned yesterday. He asked for you.
The person who telephoned yesterday asked for you.

A person telephoned you here yesterday. You should call him.
A person (whom) you should call telephoned you here yesterday.
A person (that) you should call telephoned you here yesterday.
A person you should call telephoned you here yesterday.

That book is very interesting. It is also very expensive.
That book which is very interesting is also very expensive.

That book is very interesting. Joe bought it.
That book (which) Joe bought is very interesting.
That book (that) Joe bought is very interesting.
That book Joe bought is very interesting.

- 15. I came into the room while they were watching T.V.
They were watching T.V. when I came into the room.

You told her the news while she was driving her car.
She was driving when you told her that you were going to stay in L.A.

He told me while we were walking in Ferndell.
We were walking in Ferndell when he told me.

She asked me while I was washing the dishes.
I was washing the dishes when she asked me the question.

It was raining while we were walking along the beach.

- 16. I was studying when they telephoned last night.
You were watching T.V. when they called last night.
He was listening to the radio when she came over last night.
She was having a cup of tea when the lights went out last night.
We were working when she came into the room yesterday.
You were having a good time when he came into the room.
They were reading when I called them last night.

Was I studying when they telephoned last night?
Yes, you were.
No, you weren't.

Were you watching T.V. when they called last night?
Yes, I was.
No, I wasn't.

Was he listening to the radio when she came over last night?
Yes, he was.
No, he wasn't.

Was she having a cup of tea when the lights went out last night?
Yes, she was.
No, she wasn't.

Were you working when she came into the room yesterday?
Yes, we were.
No, we weren't.

Were we having a good time when he came into the room?
Yes, we were.
No, we weren't.

Were they reading when I called them last night?
Yes, they were.
No, they weren't.

17. Do you agree?

She is thirsty, isn't she?
She isn't thirsty, is she?

It was hot 2 weeks ago, wasn't it?
It wasn't hot 2 weeks ago, was it?

There is some milk in the refrigerator,
isn't there?
There isn't any milk, is there?

He likes Los Angeles, doesn't he?
He doesn't like Los Angeles, does he?

They are staying here, aren't they?
They aren't staying here, are they?

It is raining, isn't it?
It isn't raining, is it?

You watched television last night, didn't you?
You didn't watch T.V. last night, did you?

He is going to leave soon, isn't he?
He isn't going to leave soon, is he?

She will come back, won't she?
She won't come back, will she?

You can fix it, can't you?
You can't fix it, can you?

He should come to class, shouldn't he?
He shouldn't stay at home, should he?

They have to work tomorrow, don't they?
They don't have to work tomorrow, do they?

You will be able to come tomorrow, won't you?
You won't be able to come tomorrow, will you?

Yes, I agree.

Yes, she is.
No, she isn't.

Yes, it was.
No, it wasn't.

Yes, there is.
No, there isn't.

Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

Yes, they are.
No, they aren't.

Yes, it is.
No, it isn't.

Yes, I did.
No, I didn't.

Yes, he is.
No, he isn't.

Yes, she will.
No, she won't.

Yes, I can.
No, I can't.

Yes, he should.
No, he shouldn't.

Yes, they do.
No, they don't.

Yes, I will.
No, I won't.

Writing

1. The blue car is as expensive as the yellow one.

Is the blue car as expensive as the yellow one?

Yes, it is.

The blue car is not as expensive as the yellow one. (-)

2. That old movie that we saw last night was as good as the new movie.

_____?

Yes, that old movie _____.

_____(-)

3. He drank as much coffee as Joe.

_____?

Yes, _____.

_____(-)

4. Your new house will be the same size as your last house.

_____?

Yes, _____.

_____(-)

5. His new car is going to be the same as hers.

_____?

Yes, _____.

_____(-)

6. Susan will be able to go to Chicago next summer.

_____?

Yes,_____.

_____(-)

Why not?

Because she doesn't have _____ money.

7. Chicago can be cold in the spring at times.

_____?

Yes,_____.

8. You should try to speak English every day.

_____?

Yes,_____.

9. English is different from Japanese.

_____?

Yes,_____.

10. You should exercise.

_____right after you eat?

No,_____.

You _____ wait at least half an hour before you exercise.

11. You must eat if you want to live.

_____?

Yes,_____.

12. You have to drink something every day.

_____?

Yes,_____.

Do you have to drink coffee every day?

No,_____.

10-D Dialog

(Richard, Ann, Joe and Susan are walking along Hollywood Boulevard.)

- Richard: So this is Hollywood Boulevard.
Ann: Is it different from what you thought?
Richard: Yes, it is. I thought that I was going to see movie stars everywhere.
Ann: There're the stars.
Richard: Where?
Ann: On the sidewalk.
Joe: Hey, what about me?
Susan: Well, you are an actor, but you're not quite a movie star yet.
Joe: Well, I soon will be.

(Joe and Richard walk together. Susan and Ann walk together.)

- Susan: Richard told me he's going to stay in Los Angeles.
Ann: When did he tell you that?
Susan: A little while ago while we were walking in Ferndell.
Ann: Hmm. How do you feel about that?
Susan: I like the idea.
Ann: Doesn't he have a girlfriend in Chicago?
Susan: Yes, he does, but I don't think they're getting along very well.
Ann: Hmm.

(All are walking together again at the Chinese Theater)

- Ann: So, I hear you're going to stay in Los Angeles.
Richard: Where did you hear that?

(Ann looks toward Susan. They all smile.)

- Richard: Yeah, that's right. I'm staying. I feel good out here.
Joe: I thought so.
Ann: That's great! We'll be able to see each other more often now.

(Ann hugs Richard)

Richard: Yeah. And you're going to get that dinner I promised you.

Ann: That's right!

Susan: I'm glad you're staying too.

(Susan gives Richard a hug.)

Tourist: May I have your autograph?

Joe: Certainly!

(Joe signs his autograph.)

Tourist: Thank you very much. You were great on "Hotel Fantasy".

Joe: Thank you.

(Tourist walks away.)

Joe: What did I tell you? They love me.

(All laugh)

Susan: I'll bet you hired that guy to ask for your autograph.

(All laugh)

Joe: Sure! Actually, that happened one other time, last year in Santa Monica. A little girl asked me for my autograph while I was swimming in the ocean.

Ann: You're kidding!

Joe: No, I'm not. I was surprised too.

Susan: Well, you're really getting popular now. This is the second time now in two years.

Ann: And right here at Mann's Chinese Theater, the most famous theater in Hollywood.

(All laugh)

Richard: Congratulations!

Susan: Let's see if Joe's feet fit any of the movie star's footprints.

Ann: Look. Here's Clark Gable's. Let's see if your feet are bigger than his.

Joe: I'm sure they are.

(Joe puts his feet in Gable's footprints.)

Ann: Your feet are bigger than his!

Susan: Big deal!

Ann: Richard, you try it now.

Richard: No, that's O.K. So what if my feet are bigger or smaller than Clark Gable's? What difference does that make, anyway?

Ann: Oh come on, Richard. Let's see just for the fun of it.

Susan: Yeah, let's see. I want to see too.

Joe: So do I.

Richard: O.K. I'll do it.

(He puts his feet in Gable's footprints.)

Richard: Are you all happy now?

(All laugh. They leave the theater area and go back onto Hollywood Blvd.)

Susan: The sun is going to go down soon. Why don't we go to the Observatory for the sunset?

Ann: Yeah. That'll be nice and romantic.

(Joe looks at Ann with a question on his face. All get in the car.)

Ann: Do you know what part of L.A. you want to live in, Richard?

Richard: No, I don't. Where do you think that I should live?

Ann: That's up to you. You decide.

Richard: Well, of course I'll decide, but can you guys give me some ideas where it's nice to live?

Susan: That depends on what kind of environment you like.

Joe: Like we said, it's cooler near the beach, but more expensive to rent there. You are going to rent, aren't you?

Richard: Yes, I am. I don't have enough money for a house, that's for sure.

Joe: Do you know how much rent is in Los Angeles?

Richard: No, I don't.

Joe: Again, it depends on the neighborhood. It can be anywhere from $250 to $2000 a month.

Richard: $2000 a month! You're kidding! Are you talking about a house?

Joe: No, I'm not. That's for apartments.

Richard: Two thousand dollars a month. I can't believe that!

Ann: Well, that's if you want to live in Beverly Hills.

Richard: I wasn't thinking of Beverly Hills.

Susan: What about the mid-Wilshire area. It isn't as expensive as Beverly Hills, but it's still very nice.

Ann: Yeah. It's close to everything in L.A. and there are a lot of services nearby.

Richard: O.K. I'll begin looking in that area? Ann, are you free tomorrow to help me?

Ann: No, I'm sorry, I can't. I have to work tomorrow.

Richard: Tomorrow? It's Sunday, isn't it?

Ann: Yes, it is, but I have to work all day tomorrow. When you have your own business, sometimes you even have to work on Sundays.

Joe: You have your own business?

Ann: Yes, I do.

Joe: What do you do?

Ann: I have a bookkeeping service.

Joe: How many clients do you have?

Ann: Over 25 now.

Richard: Don't you think that you should hire somebody else to help you?

Ann: Who(m) do you have in mind?

Richard: Well...I'm going to need a job out here in California.

Ann: I'll keep you in mind.

(All laugh)

Susan: Richard, I'll help you look around for an apartment. I've got some time tomorrow morning.

Richard: Are you sure?

Susan: Yeah, I'm sure, don't worry about it.

Richard: Thank you.

Joe: You're going to need a car here, Richard. The public transportation isn't as good here as it is in Chicago. You have to have a car here.

Richard: Yes, I know. Do you know anybody who wants to sell his car?

Joe: No, I don't. I just sold my old car two weeks ago. Too bad.

Ann: I don't know anybody either.
Susan: Neither do I.
Joe: Well, I have some time tomorrow afternoon. I can take you to some car lots.
Richard: We should go to used car lots. I don't have enough money to spend on a new car.
Joe: Fine. I know of a couple good ones downtown.
Richard: So, let's see, when can you pick me up tomorrow, Susan?
Susan: How 'bout 8:30? We can eat breakfast before we start looking.
Richard: Fine.
Joe: Where should I meet you, Richard, in the afternoon?
Richard: Susan, can you drop me off at Joe's place when we're through?
Susan: Sure. If you want, I can go with you two. Remember, I know quite a bit about cars.
Richard: That's right. You change your oil, don't you?
Ann: I'm sure Susan knows as much about cars as Richard does, maybe more.
Susan: O.K., O.K. I didn't want to start an argument again.
Ann: Well, let's get going. It's getting dark.

(Susan starts the car and drives to the Observatory. She parks the car.)

Richard: Where can we get a good view of the city?
Susan: Follow me.

(Richard and Susan walk up the stairs to the Observatory. Ann and Joe follow close behind them.)

Richard: Look at the lights! They go on forever!
Susan: What's that fragrance that I smell?
Richard: It smells like pine trees to me.
Susan: No, I don't think so. Are you wearing cologne?
Richard: Yes, a little.

(Susan moves closer to Richard to smell his cologne.)

Susan: Yes, that's it.

Ann: So, Richard's staying in L.A.
Joe: Yeah.
Ann: You don't seem all that happy about it.
Joe: What do you mean? I think it's fine if that's what he wants to do.
Ann: Well, he does. He and Susan are getting along quite well, aren't they?
Joe: Well, sort of.
Ann: What do you mean, "sort of"? Susan can't do enough for Richard.
Joe: That's right, but who does Richard talk to when he has questions?
Ann: Who?
Joe: You know. Remember yesterday in the car when he asked you that question?
Ann: Which question?
Joe: Richard asked you, "Ann, should I stay in Los Angeles?"
Ann: He was asking all of us that question, wasn't he?
Joe: I don't think so. He was asking you.
Ann: Wait a minute. Who does Richard spend more time with? Who is he with right now?
Joe: Susan.

(Joe looks a little sad.)

Ann: What's wrong? Joe, do you still feel something for Susan?
Joe: Well,...

Susan: What's the matter?
Richard: I think I lost my wallet.
Susan: No, you didn't. Here it is.
Richard: Thank God!
Susan: I kept it for you in my purse. Remember, you gave it to me earlier. I guess you forgot about it.

(Richard gives Susan a little kiss.)

(Richard and Susan move closer to Ann and Joe. They are all enjoying the city lights below them.)

Conversation

1. What do you like to do on weekends?

I like to relax on weekends. _____.

2. Do you ever work on the weekend?

3. What did you do last weekend?

4. Did you spend a lot of money last weekend?

5. Do you think that people should spend a lot of money on clothes?

6. Do you spend as much money on clothes as you do on food?

7. Do you spend as much money on entertainment as you do on rent?

8. Do you think that the rent in your home city is as high as the rent in Los Angeles?

9. Does it bother you when your rent goes up?

10. How often does your rent go up?

11. Do you think that people in your home country are the same as people in Los Angeles?

How are they similar?

How are they different?

12. What are some things that you can do in Los Angeles which you cannot do in your home city?

13. Can you go to the beach in your home city?

14. Should you sunbathe for more than 10 hours?

15. Should you drink a lot of alcohol and then drive?

16. Should you smoke 40 cigarettes a day?

Why not?

17. What should you do to stay healthy (in good condition)?

18. Do you have to do anything tonight?

19. What are some things that you have to do every day?

Finish the sentences below.

20. I am glad when _____

21. I am a person who _____

22. I like people who _____

I don't like people who _____

23. I like to think about _____

24. Right now, I feel _____

Why? Because _____

25. In 2 years, I will _____

26. What I like best about Los Angeles is

Evaluation

Laurel Canyon is the home of many actors, writers, and musicians. Laurel Canyon is _____ to Hollywood and Sunset Boulevard, _____ is quite different _____ central Hollywood.

Here is _____ country store _____ is similar _____ those you find _____ small towns. You _____ also stop and have a hamburger _____ the market. Laurel Canyon Boulevard is noisy _____ traffic, but, listen, what else _____ you hear?

Right _____ from the country store is a cleaners _____ laundry. This cleaners _____ "same day" service. _____ also repair shoes. There _____ many narrow roads _____ go up into _____ hills from Laurel Canyon. They aren't _____ busy _____ Laurel Canyon Blvd., _____ is a main road _____ the San Fernando Valley _____ West Hollywood.

Look at the houses _____ top of the hill. _____ is that in _____ sky? It's a plane _____ is writing a word. What _____ is spell? C-A-T-C-H. What _____ "catch" mean? _____ are _____ plants and trees in the canyon _____ almost hide the houses.

Sunset Boulevard is _____ of the _____ famous streets in _____ world. _____? Let's find out. Sunset Blvd. runs _____ the Old Plaza in downtown Los Angeles _____ the beach. Today we _____ just going _____ see a few miles _____ it, _____ West Hollywood _____ Westwood. On _____ part of Sunset there _____ a little _____ of everything. _____ are some hotels, sidewalk cafes, and all types _____ restaurants, some with dancing. Sushi is _____ in L.A., even _____ the "Strip".

_____ part of Sunset Boulevard is called ____ Sunset Strip, or just "the Strip". If you _____ want sushi today, _____ about a hamburger or hot dog? They probably serve the _____ in the world here. That's _____ the sign says, anyway.

Billboards are everywhere _____ Sunset. They advertise _____ movies and shows. _____ is the new Le Mondrian Hotel. _____ from the hotel ____ the Comedy Store. ____ you want to laugh, come here _____ night of the week.

Going west ____ Sunset, the street changes __ bit. The restaurants _____ shops _____ Sunset Plaza Drive become a bit _____ "chic". You _____ see that we _____ driving along the western side ____ the Hollywood Hills.

A _____ further west the street changes again. _____ take a short walk and look in _____ of the windows. ____ you _____ the latest style? Chinese food, anyone? ____ you have _____ money to buy this car?

_____ are always _____ new restaurants _____ the "Strip". Things change quickly here. _____ stays the same. They are always building _____ new.

Across _____ this Night Club ____ the Roxy _____ rock and jazz musicians play nightly. _____ wait. Get _____ tickets now! _____ go fast here.

Gazzarri's is _____ hot spot. It is the _____ rock club on the "Strip". They have dancing _____ night. Gazzarri's has been ____ this location for 25 years. Well, let's _____ on our way. _____ can come back to dance _____ this evening if you _____.

_____ you want to _____ some of the movie stars' houses? You _____ need a map. Just follow _____. We are now entering Beverly Hills _____ many movie stars live. Not _____ in Beverly Hills _____ a movie star, but many people here _____ and still do live _____ kings.

Let's take ____ look at one of the _____ famous mansions in _____ area, not far from Sunset Blvd. _____ Loma Vista _____ Doheny Road. Edward L. Doheny, _____ was _____ oilman, built this 55-room home _____ 1923. It is called Greystone _____ they made the roof _____ gray stone.

Let's get _____ of the car and take a look _____ the view. Greystone is now _____ public park open daily _____ 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. _____ is a fantastic view of the west side _____ Los Angeles from here.

Down Sunset a little further you _____ stop, at least for _____ little while, at _____ Beverly Hills Hotel. The hotel sits _____ 12 acres of gardens. Notice _____ banana trees. You may even see _____ movie stars here _____ the Polo Lounge.

_____ you just want _____ rest and relax and _____ want _____ spend _____ money, push the button, wait for the "WALK" sign, then walk across the street to _____ beautiful little park. This park is _____ Sunset _____ Crescent.

It _____ nice _____ come here _____ a warm Sunday afternoon. It's not _____ big _____ Griffith Park, but _____ seems to be enjoying _____ flowers, fountains, and sunshine. Little boys _____ kicking a ball on the lawn. A family _____ and laughing together.

What _____ you see in the water? What color are _____? _____ we pick some flowers and take them with _____? No, we _____. The flowers are for _____ to enjoy here.

_____ we have time _____ sunbathe? Not if you want _____ see _____ of L.A. You _____ get some sun at the beach later. Shall we be on _____ way?

Farther west, Sunset goes _____ the Bel-Air neighborhood. _____ are hundreds of mansions in _____ area _____ many film stars and the internationally famous live. The speed limit _____ this street, is 35 miles per hour. _____ you think he's driving faster
_____ 35 MPH?

_____ bit further west on Sunset at Hilgard is _____ University of California, Los Angeles: UCLA. To really see UCLA you _____ get out of your car, or _____ the bus,
and walk _____ the campus.

UCLA has more _____ 85 buildings of _____ shapes, sizes and styles, acres _____ grass, trees, and plants _____ all over the world. One of the _____ interesting spots _____ campus is the Murphy Sculpture Garden. _____
a wonderful place _____ relax, picnic, sunbathe, skate,
_____ maybe even study.

Let's take _____ look at _____ of the pieces _____ sculpture. Here's a piece _____ Henry Moore. This _____ by Maillol. _____ couple's sitting _____ a Rodin. _____ you like this _____? _____ a series of sculpture by Matisse. Notice _____ the person changes in _____ one.

_____ path goes _____ the southern part of the campus. There are _____ 33,000 students _____ UCLA, but _____ a Sunday and today _____ seems almost empty.
Even _____ weekdays, it _____ seem crowded _____ the campus is big. Let's take a look
_____. This is one _____ the outdoor eating areas.
_____ you spend all of _____ money? It's easy _____ get some more _____ the automatic teller here _____ you need to.

Are _____ hungry? We _____ get something _____ eat quickly here _____ the cafeteria. _____ can sit _____ indoors _____ outdoors. If you are really _____ a hurry, you can get _____ from the machines. There _____ sandwiches, candy, milk, _____ coffee.

This is the old _____ part of the campus. _____
buildings at the top _____ the stairs opened _____ 1929.
_____ is Royce Hall. They have _____ excellent concert series here _____ the school year. Across from Royce
Hall is _____ brick Romanesque style building _____ is the College Library.

As you _____ see, the campus of UCLA is _____ a large park. Squirrels run freely, and so _____ the students. That Gothic style building _____ Kerckhoff Hall _____ has the student offices and _____ good coffee house.

What's _____? It's a fountain, but it seems _____ be running upside _____. The water _____ running _____ a hole _____ the middle. Here's a place _____ park motorcycles.

There are _____ schools _____ the University. This is _____ Health Sciences Building. The Schools _____
Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Public Health, _____ the UCLA
Hospital _____ in this area. _____ the School of Botany _____ the Mathias Botanical Gardens _____ is on the southeast end _____ the campus. Let's rest here _____ a few minutes _____ we go into Westwood Village. _____ your legs _____ tired _____ mine? It's time for a _____ break.

Test, Unit Ten

Name _____

Instructions: Put the letter of the answer, A, B, C or D, next to the number.

- ___ 1. "Can you count all of the cars in Los Angeles?"
"No, you _____."
A. aren't C. don't
B. can't D. didn't
- ___ 2. "Why can't you count all the cars in L.A.?"
"Because there are _____."
A. too much C. too many
B. much D. any
- ___ 3. You can't eat 40 pounds of meat a day because that is _____ meat for anyone to eat in one day.
A. too much C. too many
B. much D. any
- ___ 4. "_____ you smoke?"
"No, you shouldn't. It is bad for you."
A. Can C. Are
B. Did D. Should
- ___ 5. "Should you drink a lot of beer in the morning?"
"No, you _____ drink in the morning."
A. can't C. shouldn't
B. won't D. should

- ___ 12. "_____ you have to do every day?"
"You have to eat and sleep every day."
A. Where do C. When do
B. What do D. How far do
- ___ 13. "_____ new car is that?"
"It's his."
A. When C. Who
B. Where D. Whose
- ___ 14. "Is it _____ car or Richard's?"
A. Joe's C. Joes
B. Joe D. Joe has
- ___ 15. Hers is as new as _____.
A. Richard C. mine
B. Bills D. your
- ___ 16. His car and her car are the same. There is no difference.
His car is the same as _____.
A. her C. she is
B. hers D. my
- ___ 17. My car is _____ theirs.
A. same C. different than
B. different D. the same
- ___ 18. Their apartment is _____ mine.
A. different C. same as
B. different from D. same

- ___ 19. Mary's apartment is not the same size as Joe's.
Mary's apartment _____ Joe's.
- A. is the same as C. is different from
B. the same as D. different from
- ___ 20. Richard's car is a red '85 Honda. Bill's is a red '85 Honda, too. Both cars are exactly the same.
Richard's car is as good _____ Bill's.
- A. as C. from
B. than D. a
- ___ 21. Richard's car costs _____ his.
- A. same as C. as expensive as
B. different D. as much as
- ___ 22. Her ticket is _____ hers.
- A. as cheap C. as cheap as
B. as many as D. as much
- ___ 23. Susan drank two glasses of wine, and so did Richard.
She drank _____ glasses as Richard.
- A. many C. as many
B. much D. as much
- ___ 24. Bill bought five books. Mary bought three.
Mary _____ Bill.
- A. bought as many as C. doesn't buy as many as
B. didn't buy as much as D. didn't buy as many as 86

- ___ 25. A Ford isn't _____ a Cadillac.
- A. different C. as many as
B. as expensive as D. as much
- ___ 26. Bill and his father are similar. They both do the same things.
Bill is _____ his father.
- A. like C. liked
B. liking D. can like
- ___ 27. " _____ Los Angeles like San Francisco?"
"No, it isn't."
- A. Does C. Will
B. Is D. Can
- ___ 28. " _____ John like New York?"
"Yes, he likes New York very much."
- A. Does C. Should
B. Is D. Have to
- ___ 29. They _____ be able to go to Mexico next summer.
- A. can C. have
B. will D. are
- ___ 30. I _____ talk to you in a few minutes.
- A. can C. have
B. will be able D. am

- ___ 31. He talked to a woman _____
_____.
- A. which gave him directions C. gave him directions
B. who gave him directions D. that gave her directions
- ___ 32. Susan telephoned a man _____ she gave her address to.
- A. which C. where
B. what D. whom
- ___ 33. A person _____ asked for John.
- A. that telephoned here C. which telephoned here
B. telephoned here D. what telephoned here
- ___ 34. This book _____ bought is very good.
- A. whom Joe C. Joe
B. that D. Joe's
- ___ 35. A woman _____ called you yesterday.
- A. you know C. which you know
B. that you D. who doesn't
- ___ 36. The interesting _____ downtown last weekend is the oldest building in Los Angeles.
- A. which I saw C. who I saw
B. building I saw D. that I saw

___ 42. "They weren't studying last night when I called, were they?"

"No, _____."

- A. they didn't C. they aren't
B. they weren't D. they were

___ 43. "It was hot last night, _____?"

- A. wasn't she C. doesn't it
B. isn't it D. wasn't it

___ 44. "He likes Los Angeles, _____?"

- A. isn't he C. doesn't he
B. didn't he D. does he

___ 45. You can't fix it, _____?"

- A. will you C. can't you
B. shouldn't you D. can you

___ 46. They went downtown last night, _____?"

- A. didn't they C. aren't they
B. did they D. won't they

The following are suggested answers to the Student Workbook exercises.

IN ENGLISH

VOLUME 4

UNIT 10

Questions Workbook Pages 43 - 46

1. Many actors, writers and musicians live in Laurel Canyon.
2. No, it is quite different from central Hollywood.
3. There is a cleaners across from the country store.
4. Yes, they repair shoes at this store. Or Yes, they do.
5. Laurel Canyon Blvd. is the main road between the San Fernando Valley and West Hollywood.
6. C-A-T-C-H.
7. Sunset Blvd. runs from the Old Plaza in downtown Los Angeles to the beach.
8. There is a little bit of everything on Sunset Blvd.
Or
There are some hotels, sidewalk cafes and all types of restaurants.
9. They advertise new movies and shows.
10. If you want to laugh, go to the Comedy Store.
Or
You should go to the Comedy Store if you want to laugh.
11. Yes, I like the latest style. Or Yes, I do.
Or
No, I don't like the latest style. Or No, I don't.
12. No, things don't stay the same on the "Strip". Or No, they don't.
Or
Things change quickly. Nothing stays the same.
13. Rock and jazz musicians play nightly at the Roxy. Or They play nightly at the Roxy.
14. Gazzarri's is the oldest rock club on the "Strip".
15. You can go dancing at Gazzarri's.
16. No, not everyone in Beverly Hills is a movie star.

17. Edward L. Doheny built Greystone Mansion.
18. He built it in 1923.
19. You may see some movie stars in the Polo Lounge.
Or
You can see them in the Polo Lounge.
20. I see some fish. Or I see fish.
21. No, you shouldn't.
22. There are hundreds of mansions in this area.
23. The speed limit on this street is 35 miles per hour. Or It is 35 MPH.
24. UCLA is on Sunset at Hilgard. Or It is at Sunset and Hilgard.
25. There are more than 85 buildings on the campus of UCLA.
Or
UCLA has more than 85 buildings.
26. Yes, I do. Or No, I don't.
27. I like the one by (Henry Moore or Maillol or Rodin...).
28. There are over 33,000 students at UCLA.
29. You can get something from the machines.
30. You can get sandwiches, candy, milk and coffee from machines.
Or
There are sandwiches, candy, milk, and coffee.
31. They have concerts at Royce Hall.
32. The water is running into a hole in the middle.
Or
It is running into a hole in the middle.

Writing

Workbook Pages 56 - 58

1. Is the blue car as expensive as the yellow one?
Yes, it is.
The blue car is not as expensive as the yellow one.

2. Was that old movie that we saw last night as good as the new movie?
Yes, that old movie was.
That old movie wasn't as good as the new movie.
3. Did he drink as much coffee as Joe?
Yes, he did.
He didn't drink as much coffee as Joe.
4. Will your new house be the same size as your last house?
Yes, it will.
Your new house won't be the same size as your last house.
5. Is his new car going to be the same as hers?
Yes, it is.
His new car isn't going to be the same as hers.
6. Will Susan be able to go to Chicago next summer?
Yes, she will.
Susan won't be able to go to Chicago next summer.
Because she doesn't have enough money.
7. Can Chicago be cold in the spring at times.
Yes, it can.
8. Should you try to speak English every day?
Yes, you should.
9. Is English different from Japanese?
Yes, it is.
10. Should you exercise right after you eat?
No, you shouldn't
You should wait at least half an hour before you exercise.
11. Must you eat if you want to live?
Yes, you must.
12. Do you have to drink something every day?
Yes, you do.

No, you don't.

Test: Unit 10 Workbook Pages 83 - 90

- | | | | | | | | |
|-----|---|-----|---|-----|---|-----|---|
| 1. | B | 13. | D | 25. | B | 37. | B |
| 2. | C | 14. | A | 26. | A | 38. | A |
| 3. | A | 15. | C | 27. | B | 39. | D |
| 4. | D | 16. | B | 28. | A | 40. | B |
| 5. | C | 17. | C | 29. | B | 41. | C |
| 6. | B | 18. | B | 30. | A | 42. | B |
| 7. | C | 19. | C | 31. | B | 43. | D |
| 8. | A | 20. | A | 32. | D | 44. | C |
| 9. | A | 21. | D | 33. | A | 45. | D |
| 10. | D | 22. | C | 34. | C | 46. | A |
| 11. | A | 23. | C | 35. | A | | |
| 12. | B | 24. | D | 36. | B | | |