

Folk Singer David Berger

David Berger will be singing and playing some of his favorite folk songs, some of his own music and will often encourage the audience to sing along with him. He is an accomplished flat picking guitarist and “King of the 64” note harmonica. He is a contemporary singer-songwriter who paints a picture through his lyrics and music. His performances include traditional folk, original folk, and a hint of classic rock. He has performed as an opening act for Kennedy Center Honors Winner Pete Seeger, Comedian David Brenner, and Folk Legends Tom Paxton, Bill Staines, and Jim Albertson. David has also received recognition for his songwriting from the Music City Song Writing Festival in Nashville, Tennessee.
