

2017 Estate Planning For the Modern Family

with John Manfreda, Esq.

Topics will include a general explanation of estate planning concepts and techniques, issues pertaining to joint ownership of assets, NJ Estate Tax issues, Federal Estate and Gift Tax issues, and estate planning for blended families. Mr. Manfreda will also cover beneficiary designations for life insurance and retirement plans, powers of attorney and living wills, Medicaid qualification and healthcare issues, and other topics related to the field of estate planning generally. A portion of the program will include a discussion of college funding in the context of gift tax planning for children and grandchildren. A question and answer session will follow.

Mr. Manfreda is a Senior Partner at the Clinton law firm of Gebhardt & Kiefer, PC. He has practiced for more than 30 years with an emphasis on estate and gift tax planning, estate and trust administration, real estate and general business law.
