

Introduction to Basic Genealogy Research

with New Jersey author and Genealogist Maureen Wlodarczyk

This presentation is for those with little or no experience doing ancestry research; it will provide starting points for your search. Maureen will discuss Ancestry.com, FamilySearch.org, Fold3.com, on-line newspaper archives and DNA testing in genealogy research. Handouts will be provided.

Maureen Wlodarczyk is an author, columnist, genealogist, speaker, and admitted history addict. She is also an officer and YDNA project administrator with the Flannery Clan organization based in Dublin, Ireland and a member of the Genealogical Society of New Jersey, Hudson County Historical and Genealogical Society and the Irish-American Writers and Artists organization. She writes a quarterly genealogy-related column "History & Mystery: Perfect Together" for the e-magazine Garden State Legacy and is also a contributing writer for Irish Lives Remembered, the Ireland-based genealogical e-magazine.
