

U.S. Grant: Friendship with President Lincoln

with Living Historian Kenneth J. Serfass

Living Historian Kenneth J. Serfass portrays Ulysses S. Grant for a lively presentation and discussion of the Civil War general, 18th President of the United States, and his friendship with President Lincoln.

Serfass's presentations are given in first person, allowing him to personify Ulysses S. Grant as a living person, far more than a reenactor who provides a lesson in "how THEY did things" and much more in the moment of meeting an historical figure telling you "how we ARE DOING things" as if an open page from history, come to life.
