

The World of Laura Ingalls Wilder: The Frontier Landscapes That Inspired the Little House Books

with Marta McDowell

Award-winning botanical author and landscape historian Marta McDowell will discuss her latest book The World of Laura Ingalls Wilder that tells the story of the plants and places of the beloved author of the Little House series. The book explores Wilder's deep relationship with the landscape. Follow the Wilder's wagon trail starting in the Wisconsin setting of Little House in the Big Woods, through the Dakotas, and finally to Missouri. You'll learn details about Wilder's life and inspirations, discover how to visit the real places today, and even learn to grow the plants and vegetables featured in the series.

Saturday, November 4 at 2:00 pm

Hunterdon County Library

314 State Route 12, Flemington

This program is free and open to the public.

Due to the popularity of our programs, we recommend reserving a seat. Please call (908) 788-1434, or click on the Calendar of Events at www.hclibrary.us

Reservations are necessary in the event the program is cancelled. Vacant seats will be released 5 minutes prior to the start of the program.

It is the policy of the Hunterdon County Library to provide reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities with advance notification of need. Please call (908) 788-1434. Without advance reservations, it may not be possible to provide accommodations. 10/17