

Meet Author Luisa LoCascio

Author of “Between Two Worlds: Sicily and America”

Author Luisa LoCascio describes in stunning detail her experience as a daughter of Sicilian immigrants while growing up in Montclair, NJ during the 40's and 50's.

She shares her many-layered understanding of Sicily and of Sicilians in America. As her father always told her: "If anyone asks if you are Italian, you must say "No, I am Sicilian." Eager to bring her family stories to life, Luisa has traveled extensively in and around the beautiful island of Sicily that was her family's home, painting, photographing and absorbing her heritage. As a juried artist and author of Between Two Worlds: Sicily and America: a Journey Through Myth and Reality, Luisa divides her time between speaking engagements, her easel and her far-flung though close-knit Sicilian family.
