BEING MORTAL

Medicine and What Matters in the End

Based on the best-selling book by Atul Gawande, MD, this documentary explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the physicians who treat them.

See the film and be part of a national conversation that brings medical professionals and community members together around the shared responsibility of discussing what matters most to patients and families facing difficult treatment decision and how to have these conversations ahead of a medical crisis. This movie is being presented by Hunterdon Hospice through the “Being Mortal” Project sponsored by Hospice Foundation of America and is underwritten by the John and Wauna Harman Foundation.
