

NCB Garden Club

Ruth Claus, Certified Rutgers Master Gardener Rutgers Cooperative Extension Master Gardener of Hunterdon County

Frederick Law Olmsted designed NYC's Central Park, helped protect Yosemite Valley and Niagara Falls, and landscaped Biltmore Estate in Asheville, NC. These and other groundbreaking projects show why he is the "Father of American Landscape Architecture".

Visit the HCL Library Seed Exchange upstairs in the Reference Department. Perhaps bring seeds from your own garden to donate, or take some for 2018!

Refreshments will be available to celebrate the holiday season.
