

Origami Workshop

with Patsy Wang-Iverson

Patsy Wang-Iverson will lead a workshop introducing all ages to the basic folds and shapes of origami. Using this knowledge, participants will fold more elaborate projects, including animal shapes and wearable objects. Patsy Wang-Iverson is the vice president for special projects at the Gabriella and Paul Rosenbaum Foundation, where she focuses on TIMSS, lesson study, and mathematics education in high-performing nations. She is also a co-organizer of the International Meeting on Origami Science, Mathematics and Education.
