My Cabinet of Curiosities by Tim Betz of Annandale

This show looks at collecting and memory through Still Lifes of assorted weird objects juxtaposed in strange ways. It builds on the tradition of Cabinets of Curiosities, rooms that the wealthy used to have to display oddities they had collected from around the world.

Tea Time the World Over from the collection of Santha Thanjan

These uniquely decorated were issued to commemorate special days from all over the world. Enjoy a refreshing cup of tea and a cookie wherever you go; and save the strong little boxes to remind you of your travels.

Inge Rist Lincoln Paintings - An Art Retrospective

This collection reveals an unusual artist's eye for design and color in all media from watercolor, acrylic, mono prints silkscreen, stencil prints, and mixed/digital media. Spanning a lifetime of art, Annandale resident Inge's works offer personal interpretations of animals, family, school days as well as traditional scenes and florals

Baskets Full of Braided Wood by Liz Fulmer and her students

Basketry classes at the Hunterdon County Parks & Recreation Department encourage imaginative use of a wide variety of natural materials & decorations, to create containers of many shapes, styles & special uses.

Water, Water Everywhere!

The Hunterdon 300th is continuing to explore the history and heritage of Hunterdon County, this year using water! Don't miss any of these events. Go to www.hunterdon300th.org or call (908) 788-2030 to register and for more information.
