

We are happy to welcome you back to the library. Front porch deliveries will still be available to all patrons. We encourage patrons to try this successful program.

Currently there are some guidelines for all of us to help keep the patrons and staff safe and healthy.

- Please stay home if you are showing signs of illness or have been in contact with someone who is sick.

- Face masks must be worn, and social distancing must be observed.
- Everyone must use the provided hand sanitizer upon entering the library.
- Patrons are expected to limit their time in the library to the selection of materials. We kindly ask you not to linger, limiting your visit to 30 minutes.

- Return all materials to the blue Book Return box in the parking lot. All materials returned to our library will be quarantined for 72 hours before being made available for the next patron.
- Computer use limited to one hour per day, starting on the hour, one patron at a time to maintain social distancing. Reservations will be taken.
- Magazines and newspapers may be checked out but are not available for browsing at this time.
- Maximum of 10 people, 5 upstairs, 5 downstairs.
- No meetings are allowed inside the library, including tutoring sessions. Outdoor meetings on the patio can be scheduled. The public is encouraged to enjoy the library's backyard.
- Book sales room are open, everyone is expected to use provided hand sanitizer before entering the room and to observe social distancing.

Currently, the library will be open: Tuesday -Thursday 9-6:00, Saturday 9-12.

Front porch delivery will continue Monday through Saturday.
